PROPERTY APPRAISER'S OFFICE RECERTIFIES INTERNATIONAL CERTIFICATION

Clay County, Florida – Roger A. Suggs, CFA, AAS, CCF, Clay County Property Appraiser, announces that the Clay County Property Appraiser's Office (CCPAO) has earned the recertification of the prestigious International Association of Assessing Officers' (IAAO) Certificate of Excellence in Assessment Administration (CEAA). The CCPAO received the initial certification in 2011.

Earning the CEAA is a rigorous and challenging task. The purpose of the certification is to recognize those governmental units utilizing best appraisal and assessment practices throughout their offices including a strong emphasis on teamwork, accomplishments and a high level of satisfaction among peers, staff and constituents. It is intended for jurisdictions that have developed superior assessment practices for all aspects of their operations.

IAAO is headquartered in Kansas City and is the leading nonprofit, educational and research association in the assessment profession and others with an interest in property valuation and taxation. IAAO's mission is to promote innovation and excellence in property appraisal, assessment administration and property tax policy through professional development, education, research and technical assistance. IAAO currently serves over 7,000 members worldwide and celebrated its 83rd anniversary in 2017.
